For $20 you will get a conversation like this but customized for your ideas.

Charlie: Hey, did you hear about the new writer around here?
Jackie: Wait, a new writer? What's his specialty?
Charlie: He writes stories for games, but he also does item lore and NPC dialogue separately. Pretty convenient, right?
Jackie: Wow, man. I'm actually working on a game myself and need a writer who doesn't overcharge, turns rough drafts into clean readable text, and builds great stories out of them.
Charlie: That's literally his whole deal! In fact, he'll even script a full conversation between two NPCs for way less than forty bucks.
Jackie: Yeah, I'm definitely going to reach out to him. Let's see if he's as friendly and skilled as people say or just another AI slop copy-paster, haha. See ya!
Charlie: Haha, see ya! Go bust those myths.

(Hey, if you need custom dialogue for your project, you're standing right where you need to be. Don't be afraid to hit the writer up!)
